

The art of communication

By numerous researches, trial and scientific works, and centuries-old experience, it is proved that a man is a group creature. The process of socialization passes quickly, abandoning not a soul after the side. First phrases, senses, concepts, a child absorbs with milk of mother, further child's garden, school, institute, society. These are next steps in the process of socialization, which proceeds just through life. Yet much a man aspired to solitude, what shy was not, to get a complete separation from society it is nearly impossible and outward things, and it is not needed for majority from us. As a rule, we gladly go to the contact with people, hunt heartfelt love, real friendship. A man is not indifferent to the outward things, curious, aspires to cognition somewhat new, especially if it the new touches his home town directly. This fact confirms a necessity and importance of creation of informative portals of one or another metropolis. An informative portal of Irkutsk is not an omission. People who are concerned in life of the town, there are very and very much.
